place, expecting that perhaps it was not the last of him or that he had a companion who would revenge himself in case I had had as good aim as hoped, but my comrades were not so cool, and two or three of them crawled along the ditch to say to me, "You plumped him." We did not take any chances on the fact that Snake in the Grass had been silenced for some hours, but observed the usual precautions, kept well behind our shelter, which, though slim, we always believed was an armor we could not safely do without—let the fire burn away, and gradually the men dropped to sleep. I did not.

We had a vidette of about fifteen feet in front of the post, and along in the wee small hours we heard the well-known whistle of the swamp bird which was a signal that there was a Confederate lying out in the grass who wanted to talk. The "Johnny" was allowed to come into the post, and the first remark he made was:

"Well, you have settled Snake in the Grass at last, and, boys, we 'uns are just as glad of it as you are. We'd 'a been glad if he'd got it long ago."

"Why, is he dead?" I said, speaking up quickly.

"Well, I won't say about that, but he came down out of that tree like a log of wood, and the last I saw of him two or three of the boys were carrying him to the rear of the hospital. He's got it pretty hard, and we 'uns never expect to see him again, and we don't want to. It served him right. We don't believe in that sort of thing, and just because the orders are that we must keep up a shootin' now and then a man takes it as though the order was especially meant for him. That was the way with Snake-in-the-Grass, and what could we say? We couldn't stop him, though we knew that every man he hit would be retaliated by 'uns every chance you got. Besides, it's murder, cold-blooded murder, the best you can say for it."

Aim at the Drake

And you are bound to hit some of the ducks. This is precisely the same with

Wampole's

Tasteless

Preparation

Cod Liver Oil.

It aims to cure Consumption, Hits the Mark, too, and it most effectually breaks up Colds, Coughs, Hoarseness and all Throat and Lung troubles that cause this disease.

It is natural logic to conclude that if WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION OF COD LIVER OIL has power to prevent Consumption, it surely is able to cure these lesser emergencies.

This vigor-making, fat producing preparation is Absolutely Tasteless, in so far as Cod Liver Oil is concerned. All you notice is a delightful flavor of Wild Cherry and Anise.

But the purest Norwegian Cod Liver Oil is there all the same. It is a great blood enricher. Best of all it is a natural food that in its stomachic effects, actually assists its own assimilation.

In Pulmonary or Bronchial troubles it is unequalled. No one doubts the value of Cod Liver Oil, but not every one is able to take it.

WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION

removes the nauseous objection and actually makes Cod Liver Oil palatable.

In making up an order, see that it includes a subscription for yourself and for one or more relatives or friends abroad to "THE FRIEND" the oldest paper published in the Pacific, Rev. S. E. Bishop, Editor; published monthly, at $2 per annum, devoted to the religious and educational interests of these islands, as also a recorder of political and other current events. Sample copies mailed to any address. A limited number of advertisements inserted at reasonable rates.

The Hawaiian Annual now in its Nineteenth year, and acknowledged not only as the best authority on all information pertaining to the islands that residents should know and strangers invariably ask, but the only reference book of Hawaiian statistics, and annual recorder of current and remnant events. There are homes probably in this land in which it is unknown, except by name, and there are numerous friends abroad to whom this publication would afford untold satisfaction for the fund of reliable information it imports in its one hundred and fifty or more pages, with nothing of the "Guide Book" gush about it. Price per copy to any address in these islands, 75 cents; or mailed to any address in the Postal Union for 85 cents each.
